ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW SUMMARY

Strengths: The agency has a strong team that shows compassion and care for their clients. The policies and procedures manual are very organized and specific to the agency. The agency shows creative ways in working with each client and their individual needs.

Recommendations: None

Plan of Correction:

The following area will require a plan of correction to address the rule of non-compliance which shall include an updated policy and/or procedure, a time frame for implementation of this procedure, the staff position or title responsible for implementation and the staff position or title responsible for ensuring continued compliance of these rules.

1. The agency has a policy on guaranteed client rights per ARSD 67:61:06:02. The client rights form posted in the group rooms includes four of the six guaranteed client rights and should be updated to clearly identify all client rights. The following items from this Rule are missing from the forms:
 - iv. To have access to an advocate as defined in subdivision 67:61:01:01(4) or an employee of the state's designated protection and advocacy system;
 - vi. The right to participate in decision making related to treatment, to the greatest extent possible.

CLIENT CHART REVIEW SUMMARY

Strengths: The clients interviewed shared positive feedback regarding the services they received by the agency. The clients shared they liked the atmosphere at the agency. The clients reported staff members are willing to help them at any time, and the clients liked the 'goody room.' The agency documents missed appointment notes in the chart which are detailed about why the appointment was missed. The assessments were detailed, organized, and shared the client's stage of change throughout the assessments. The client's files were well organized and easy to follow. The agency was very timely with completing the assessments.
